

PENSIONS ARE GROWING LESS

Commissioner Ware Predicts the Pension Bureau Will Soon Lose Its Importance.

NUMBER DECREASE

The Total Now Is Less Than a Million, and Gradually Growing Smaller.

Washington, Sept. 11.—Commissioner of Pensions Ware predicts in his annual report, which is just out, that his bureau will cease to be noticed as a prominent factor within the next ten years.

The commissioner places the total number of pensioners now on the rolls at 996,545, of which 729,356 are soldiers and 267,189 are widows and dependents. Mr. Ware announces that it is not probable that the pension roll will again cross the million line, the high-water mark having been reached a year ago. Five of the pensioners are on the roll on account of the war of the revolution, 1,116 on account of the war of 1812; 4,734 on account of the Indian wars, and 13,874 on account of the Mexican war.

Make-up of the Roll.
The great bulk of the roll is as follows: Civil war invalids, 703,456; widows, 248,390; Spanish war invalids, 9,200; widows, 3,662; and the regular establishment invalids, 9,170; widows, 2,938. The roll shows a net loss of 2,801 pensioners during the year. Out of a total of 304,899 applications on hand during the year, 130,109 were admitted and 113,794 rejected.

The average annual value of each pension is now $133. The annual value of the Spanish war pension roll has reached $1,765,310.

Commissioner Ware makes the following recommendations: Laws for letting the pension or right to pension of any man convicted in court of an infamous crime; prohibiting the giving to the women who marry soldiers after the soldiers become old pensioners, and a different method of examining applicants for pension. He stamps the present system as uncertain, expensive, unsatisfactory and generative of an enormous amount of political friction.

Favors Civil Service.
Mr. Ware suggests boards constituted of experts under civil service rules, which should go from place to place on fixed days, giving examinations and receiving testimony regarding the condition of applicants, and making reports thereon. He also recommends a law providing for superannuated clerks, vigorously urging some law of retirement and provision. Mr. Ware says that the bureau has gained upon the current work 100,000 cases during the last two years.

An interesting historical analysis of pension figures shows that the actual total of disbursements in pensions on account of the revolutionary war, war of 1812, Indian wars, Mexican war, civil war, and the war with Spain was $3,038,623,500.

Billions in Pensions.
It is estimated that $16,000,000 was paid in pensions for disabilities and deaths due to military and naval service in the wars of 1812 and with Mexico, and during the time of peace prior to the war of the rebellion, making the payments of pensions to soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion and of the regular military and naval establishment since the close of said war of the rebellion, and their widows, children and dependent relatives amount to $2,862,240,400.

On the Down Road.
The cost of the pension system per capita of population for 1903 is given, at $1.75. The system, according to Commissioner Ware, was the greatest as a burden to the people of the United States in 1893, since which time it has shrunk from $2.24 to $1.22 per $1,000 of taxable wealth, and in ten years, he says, the burden will cease to be noticed. Mr. Ware estimates that the unpensioned survivors of the civil war, exclusive of deserters, is in round numbers 200,000, and says that this unknown army is meeting with disease and misfortune to such an extent that it is applying for pensions at the rate of over 14,000 per annum.

ALLEGED SORCERER IS SLAIN

Aged Ex-Slave Shot to Death by Three Men in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 11.—"Uncle" Finney, an ex-slave over ninety years old, who lived in a mountain cabin on the farm of the late James Martin in Franklin county, was regarded by ignorant people living in the vicinity as being a sorcerer. A few nights ago the old man was called to his door by three unknown men and shot to death.

MAY BE QUICKSAND FURTHER BELOW

Biggest Engineering Work in Rock County Under Way—Fourth Pump Installed.

Appearance of quicksand have begun to show in the vicinity of the diggings behind the cofferdam at the Ford mill and Foreman Griffith thinks that there may be more yet to encounter further down. The present makeup of the river bed is sand and gravel, at the depth so far, but for the foundations of the wheel house as they have been planned, the excavating must go eight feet further down and there is no telling what kind of earth formations will be encountered.

New Digging.
No digging has ever been done at the present depth so the character of the soil that underlies the river bottom is not known. "Very few realize," said Mr. Griffith, "that this is probably the biggest engineering work that has been started in Rock county for some time, if not the largest ever attempted in this vicinity."

The work has been held back by the lack of power and the unusual height of the river. Today a third pump is being put in place which has a capacity equal to the total power of the three now at work behind the cofferdam. Increased power has been brought from the main plant and a third motor set up at the dam, which will be run with a current equal to fifty-horse power.

A Ten-Inch Stream.
The smaller pumps that have been doing the work in the past have six-inch streams each but the last one, which is a horizontal centrifugal pump, will throw a ten-inch stream of water and it is thought that with the three at work, no further trouble will be experienced with the water unless adverse conditions are met with further below the present surface of the ground.

SHOOTS AT HIS WIFE'S ESCORT

Indiana Man Attempts Murder and Is Sent to Jail.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 11.—R. H. Layton, aged 53, of Battleground, met William Downs of the same town in this city with Mrs. Layton and fired two shots at close quarters at his wife's escort, both going wild of the mark. Mrs. Layton and Downs came to Lafayette and went to the law office of George D. Parks, where the woman said she had an appointment with the attorney, who was to file her application for divorce. On finding the door locked they turned to go down the stairs and were confronted by Layton, who drew a revolver from his pocket and fired. Layton was arrested and lodged in jail. Both men are prominent in Battleground, where the news of the encounter has caused a sensation.

STATE NOTES

F. A. Thornton, president of the Beloit Federated council, was struck on the head at the Fairbanks-Morse shop, at Beloit, Wis., by a piece of iron which fell from a crane and he is now at a hospital with a fractured skull. His condition is serious, but not necessarily dangerous.

At the closing session of the National Fraternal league at Manitowoc, Grand Rapids, Wis., was chosen as the place of meeting in September, 1904.

T. J. Cooper of Grand Rapids fired upon a supposed chicken thief in his hen house and when the smoke had cleared away he found that he had killed a large mink.

IRISH REFUGEE GAINS A POINT

JUDGE BAKER HANDS DOWN DECISION FOR LYNCHING.

IS NOT TO BE EXTRADITED

Now Will Come the Habeas Corpus Proceedings To Secure His Removal.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)

Indianapolis, Sept. 11.—Federal Judge Baker this morning handed down his decision in the now celebrated Lynchheim extradition case and he held that he should not be taken back to New York to be tried there on a New York state warrant. This is a victory for Lynchheim.

Writ Asked For.
Lynchheim will now be taken before a United States commissioner on a habeas corpus proceeding. On commissioners' decision depends whether Lynchheim shall be taken to Ireland to resume his sentence in an Irish prison. The case has created much sentiment in favor of the prisoner.

HANNA NOT TO CONDUCT REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN

Chairman of the National Committee Is Afflicted with Acute Derangement of Digestive Organs.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 11.—In the rush of callers at his office Senator Hanna called a halt and summoned his physician. He said he felt as bad as at any time during his recent illness. The trouble is with his stomach. His physician advises quiet, and as much as possible he will obey these instructions. All of the senator's engagements out of town have been canceled, with the exception of the McKinley monument dedication at Toledo. Thereafter his speeches will all be political, but brief, and under the direction of the state committee.

The senator has been ailing ever since he entered upon a political career, but of late his distress has become more acute, and his sickness more aggravated. His stomach has been a source of weakness to him, but it has never given him as much discomfort as now.

The senator for two years has not enjoyed a day of absolute health, and his condition has grown worse. Those close to him said today, after they learned the nature of his illness, that he is now entering upon his last political contest.

He will try as hard as his health will permit to gain a re-election to the United States senate. After serving six more years in that body he will retire from politics.

They go even farther and say that this sickness will cause him to relinquish his place as chairman of the national Republican committee. It is known that the senator would like to manage the national Republican campaign once more, but this wish seems now to be impossible.

Took Buell's Place: C. H. Hemingway has been conducting examinations in place of Supt. H. C. Buell during the latter's illness. Wednesday Mr. Hemingway superintended the regular grade teachers and kindergarten examinations and yesterday he had charge of the examinations for pupils who were making up back studies. Next Saturday afternoon a meeting will be held at four o'clock at the high school building for the purpose of talking over the plans for the coming year and deciding on the different details of the work. All the teachers, both old and new, are asked to be present.

Seat Sale Begins: The sale of seats for "Sky Farm" opens Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
New York, Sept. 11.—George Beavers, former postoffice official who was indicted in July in Brooklyn in connection with the purchase of the postoffice supplies, appeared before Commissioner Hitchcock this morning to answer to a new indictment charging him with conspiracy which was handed down at Washington yesterday.

Given Bail.
He was admitted to bail at $5,000 and his case set for the 25th. He is charged with accepting supplies and equipment without having advertised for proposals and at higher prices than the ordinary cost of said supplies.

REMOVES GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL FOR FRAUD

President Roosevelt Deposes the Surveyor General of Arizona for Illegal Practices.

Washington, Sept. 11.—President Roosevelt has ordered the removal of Hugh H. Price, the surveyor general of Arizona, and will follow this action with removal of the surveyor's chief clerk, W. E. Murphy, as a result of the discovery of fraudulent transactions by these men in connection with the surveying of land claims.

This action by the president and Commissioner Richards of the general land office followed an investigation of charges filed some time ago with the secretary of the interior that Price and Murphy were receiving illegal fees for expediting work in their office in connection with the issuance of survey patents on land grants.

It was alleged that the surveyor general and his chief clerk had carried on this scheme for many months, and had received a "rake-off" of thousands of dollars from Arizona settlers.

A survey patent had to be issued on each land claim, and it was necessary for a settler in taking up a claim to make a deposit of $20 with the surveyor general to "defray the expenses of making the survey and issuing the patent."

Price and his assistant applied to their own pockets the balance left after the survey had been made, which was far the greater part of the deposit.

SYNOD TABLES MOTION TO OUST SENATOR SMOOT

Heated Discussion Over Resolution to Deprive the Mormon of His Seat in the Senate.

Ashbury Park, N. J., Sept. 11.—At the convention of the Evangelical Lutheran synod of New York and New Jersey, held here, a resolution was introduced by Rev. C. W. Holder of Albany in sympathy with the movement to oust Reed Smoot from his seat in the United States senate. After ten minutes' heated discussion the motion was laid on the table by a vote of 18 to 13. In part the resolution was as follows: "Whereas, The seating of said Smoot is a direct insult to the purity and integrity of the houses and families of this Christian nation and public recognition of an avowed exponent and official of polygamy, with its accompanying polygamy, is in direct contravention of the basic principles of our government:

JOHN FISHER'S HORSES WIN OUT

Janesville Man Captured the Races at Dodgeville Fair Yesterday, with Aunt Laura.

John Fisher is at Dodgeville with his string of horses, Aunt Laura, Lady D., and Prince Howe. Yesterday Aunt Laura and Lady D. were first and second in the special free-for-all trot at the Dodgeville fair, covering the distance in 2:34. Prince Howe also distinguished himself by jumping over the fence and running amuck through the crowd of 1,000 people. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. The accident was brought about by an attendant throwing a blanket over the horse's head while waiting for a race.

WOMAN AND DOG FOUND DEAD

Animal Perishes of Hunger Watching the Body of Its Mistress.

New York, Sept. 11.—In a gloomy, old-fashioned house in Dean street, Brooklyn, the police who battered down the door have found the body of Mrs. Margaret May lying on a bed in an upper room. At her feet lay the body of a fox terrier dog. Until recently the old house had been a mecca for the poor of that quarter. Since the death of Mrs. May's husband, who was quite wealthy, the woman had distributed charity to all who applied. She had not been seen for at least a month, and weeds had grown high in the usually well-kept garden where she formerly had spent much time.

HERMIT OF ROME IS MISSING

Alexander Holton, Who Lived Alone in Hut Half Century, Disappears.

Perla, Ill., Sept. 11.—Alexander Holton of Rome, who for forty years has been a recluse and borne the name of the "hermit of Rome," is mysteriously missing. Ever since he was 20 years of age he has acted strangely. He lived in a hut on the hillside and raised corn and a few pigs, and these, as far as the public knows, afforded him a living. He never spoke to anyone, but only grunted when addressed. Neighbors did not invade his sacred halls. A few days ago Holton was missed. His stock was suffering and suspicion was aroused. The door of his house was forced open, but Holton was not there. Interested residents are trying to locate him.

POLICE CHIEF IS IN TROUBLE

T. F. Chaney of Plymouth, Ind., Sued for Breach of Promise.

La Porte, Ind., Sept. 11.—Rosetta Nier of Plymouth has caused a sensation by bringing action against Thomas F. Chaney, chief of police of Plymouth, for $5,000 damages for breach of promise. Miss Nier alleges that Chaney asked her to set the date for their marriage and that she named March 25. The marriage was not solemnized on that date, however.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania declined to honor the requisition of the governor of Maine for the extradition of Harry L. Brown, who is wanted at Portland, Me., to answer charges of embezzlement. The governor bases his refusal on the fact that Brown has not been indicted.

John Mamet, a saloon-keeper, was fatally shot by Marshal R. A. Surtees at Murray City, O. G. W. Vassick, a saloon-keeper, and William McComb, the latter's bartender, were wounded. Surtees was wounded in his wrist. Mamet had been arrested by the marshal on a charge of keeping his saloon open on Sunday and the saloon men swore vengeance.

Essex Stayton, a negro, under arrest at Philadelphia, is wanted at Greenville, N. C., to answer to the charge of murder. Stayton was arrested on complaint of his wife, who charged him with assault and battery. She also accused her husband of having shot and killed Abraham L. Little, his brother-in-law, at Grimesland, N. C., in March, 1902.

While playing near a creek stove the clothes of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ab Dillard, at Mexico, Mo., became ignited and the child was burned to death before the flames could be extinguished.

Financial troubles caused the suicide of George Rupprecht, a lumberman at Duluth, Minn. He pawned his watch and spent the money for two ounces of hashish. "He was of middle age and unmarried."

Andrew D. White, formerly ambassador to Germany, will go abroad about the middle of October to remain until spring. He will leave Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 15 to visit his daughter at Purdue university and also will make a trip to Michigan university and Chicago before he starts on his trip to Europe.

Wilfred Roseboro, a negro, was executed at Stateville, N. C., for assaulting and killing Mrs. Adolph Beavers in Toddler county some weeks ago. He confessed.

Grasshoppers have destroyed the crops of the Pearsa Indians in Taos county, New Mexico, and the government will have to help them over the winter and supply them with seed grain next spring.

Mont Sartin, a joint keeper, was shot and instantly killed by William Greenwell at Wexler, Kan. Greenwell is cattle inspector in the service of the state live stock sanitary commission. Sartin was a brother of Postmaster Sartin of Kansas City, Kan.

READY TO WAR ON TURKEY NOW

Bulgarians Are Intent on Securing Revenge for Countrymen Killed by Soldiers.

MANY MASSACRED

Revolutionary Bodies Are Now Sending Out Statements Showing the Number Killed in Villages.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 11.—Bulgaria is determined to fight the Turk. For the government to resist the people's determination to avenge their murdered countrymen in Macedonia might precipitate a revolution. And the government has little disposition to delay hostilities. Confident that the powers will intervene to save them from loss of national identity, the members of the ministry are rather fomenting than discouraging the feeling against the Mussulmans.

Even Premier Petroff has plainly informed the representatives of the powers that Bulgaria cannot witness with indifference the annihilation of the Bulgarian population in Macedonia, and that, unless some other means can be found of restraining Turkey's frightful repressive measures, the country must depart from its attitude of neutrality.

Tell of Massacres.
While the premier's intimation was conveyed in the course of informal conversation with the diplomats in Sofia and in no sense intended as an official communication it may be regarded as an intimation that the patience of the Bulgarian people is becoming exhausted.

Every day brings news of fresh massacres and outrages in Macedonia. The revolutionary organizations have published elaborate statistics giving the names of 111 villages burned by the Turkish soldiery, the number of houses in each, the date of the incendiarism, and particulars of the number of persons murdered in each case.

Abuse Women and Children.

Official reports arriving here are suspiciously reticent, but no doubt exists regarding the terrible barbarities practiced by the Turkish regulars and bashi-bazouks on helpless women and children in Macedonia. The Sofia government has hitherto withstood all attempt on the part of the Macedonian committee to draw Bulgaria into a war with Turkey, but the condition of affairs is daily becoming more critical and the position of the ministry more difficult.

The official view of the situation continues pessimistic, but in some other quarters the belief prevails that the powers will shortly propose a new scheme of pacification in Macedonia and thus remove the possibility of a Turko-Bulgarian war.

Hope for Intervention.

Much confidence is expressed that the approaching visit of the czar to Vienna will result in the peaceful solution of the difficulties. Telegrams from the frontier indicate approaching disturbances in northern and eastern Macedonia. A telegram from Djoumla says the rich Turks are leaving the villages in that district, and that the Pomaks, or Bulgarian Mohammedans, would follow suit, but do not know where they can find refuge.

The great forest of Pirin is burning. The Turks set fire to the forest in four places, and the flames are visible at a great distance. Fighting is reported to be taking place near Melnik, and another fight is also going on in the vilayet of Monastir.

Surprise Bash-Bazouks.

At Bukovitz between Krichewo and Gostiva, the insurgents surprised a body of bashi-bazouks pillaging the village. The latter were attacked and many were killed. Near Midesch, district of Kustur, it is reported that a band led by Tchakaloff has defeated a detachment of Turkish troops, who had about sixty killed. Many wounded Turks are arriving at Monastir, filling the hospitals.

The people in the district of Veles are reported to be in a terrible condition. Nearly all their villages have been plundered and destroyed. The old men, women and children were brutally fogged by the soldiers, and many were killed, the bashi-bazouks leaving the bodies unburied. The Bulgarian inhabitants of the town of Veles are terrified, fearing to leave their houses lest they should be denounced by the Greek spies and cast into prison.

Mrs. E. C. Bailey will exhibit her collection of burnt wood designs at her Court street home tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Mrs. A. W. Smith, an elderly woman residing in the Fresno flat, fell and dislocated an ankle while at Wm. Hyser's home yesterday. Dr. A. W. Woods attended her and says that the injury was not a serious one.

QUESTION OF ASSESSMENTS

STIRS ANCIENT ORDER OF UNITED WORKMEN.

JANESVILLE LODGE CONSIDERS

An Order Has Been Sent Out for Material Increase in Cases of Members Over Fifty-Five.

The increased assessment recently ordered by the supreme lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen has been a subject of absorbing interest here the Janesville organization at all of its meetings of late. It will probably form the sole topic of discussion at the session to be held this evening, owing to the fact that it is to be the last before the special meeting of the grand lodge of Wisconsin to be held at Madison on September 24. Action on the recommendation is to be taken at this meeting.

Increase Inevitable
While considering the proposed change has been manifested, there is a general feeling among the conservative members that the raise in rates at this time was inevitable from the beginning. The order was instituted thirty-four years ago with a rate of $3.84 a month for $2,000 insurance. Most of the members were then young men and for many years the rate furnished an adequate fund. In the course of time, however, the proportion of elderly members has materially increased. It is said that $169,000 in death benefits has been paid out during the last 29 years.

What Experts Say
Insurance experts say that the increase in rates recommended by the grand lodge is imperative. The rates, they maintain, were altogether too low at the outset. The increase advocated is from $3.84 to $4.40 for a $2,000 benefit.

Madison Lodge Excited
At Madison at a recent meeting, the proposition was voted down and many of the younger members are reported to have freely expressed their preference to paying extra assessments rather than have the older members of the order assessed as proposed. There has also been some intemperate talk of secession from the Wisconsin grand lodge from the local body. Such a move, of course, is not contemplated by any considerable number of the members, as it not only would in no manner benefit any one concerned, but on the other hand would deprive every Wisconsin member who has an investment in the order of his benefit.

Strong Organization Here
The Janesville lodge is a strong one. It has 420 names on its roster. E. F. Schumacher is the delegate who will be sent from this city to the special session and a number of members will also attend. James M. Thayer of this city is grand master of the Wisconsin jurisdiction.

WHITEHEAD'S BID NOT YET ACCEPTED

President of Labor Council Receives the Senator's Communication, and Is Hit with Piece of Iron.

Leading men in Beloit labor circles say that it is unlikely that the Trades Council will accept Senator Whitehead's proposition to hear him answer Gov. La Follette's Labor day speech. According to a Beloit press dispatch, R. D. Hogan, editor of the Labor Journal, believes that Mr. Whitehead's invitation will not be accepted and that in any case Assemblyman Brittan will decline to preside at such a meeting. Mr. Brittan refused to preside when Gov. La Follette spoke. Since Mr. Brittan is an ardent La Follette man it is hardly to be supposed that he would care to foster anything antagonistic to the governor.

The same dispatch stated that A. A. Thornton, president of the Beloit Federated Trades council, met with an unlucky accident directly after receiving the senator's invitation. While employed at the Fairbanks-Morse shops he was struck on the head by a piece of iron which fell from a crane and is now in the emergency hospital with a fractured skull. His wound, the dispatch says, is serious but not necessarily fatal. Mr. Whitehead's letter has been given to Vice President Krape, who will not say, at this time, what action will be taken in the matter by the labor council. There was to have been a meeting of the labor council last evening as there was no conference Wednesday night, on account of the condition of Mr. Thornton. The union officials are much worried over his accident.

TINKER SMITH BOBBED UP AGAIN

Had a Friendly Chat with A. H. Hayward—May Have Been in Other Robberies.

"Tinker" Smith was found peacefully sleeping in the hay mow of A. H. Hayward's barn the morning after the Carle robbery, having apparently come there after his escape from Carle's grocery. "Mr. Hayward heard a noise in the hay while milking his cow and upon investigating, found Smith. As he did not know of the theft the evening before, Mr. Hayward let Smith go after helping him out with the loan of an old hat. The Hayward barn is at 158 Racine street and it is the opinion of people in the neighborhood that Smith made the barn his headquarters previous to the last escapade and that possibly he knows more of the other robberies that have occurred in that neighborhood during the past few weeks. Smith, after leaving the Hayward residence, visited a downtown saloon, where they also let him go, and nothing more has been seen of him.

MADISON BOOMING; MAY GET FACTORY

Don Farnsworth Plans to Locate Linen Makers in the Capitol City.

The president of the Hough Shade corporation, Don Farnsworth, is carrying on the preliminary negotiations with the mayor of Madison for the locating of a large linen factory in that city. This concern which is now located in Massachusetts is to be moved west and at the meeting in Milwaukee early in the week of the Wisconsin Industrial and Commercial association, this fact was learned by Mayor Groves of the Capitol City. The proposition made by Mr. Farnsworth, seems favorable to the mayor and a meeting will be held in that city on Saturday at which the details of the proposal will be discussed and plans relative to the moving of the factory will be talked over. It will take considerable time to bring the factory to Madison, should the deal go through, as the plant is a large one, with much machinery and employing many hands.

Grasshoppers Destroy Crops.
Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 11.—Grasshoppers have destroyed the crops of the Pecos Indians in Taos county and the government will have to help the victims through the winter and supply them with seed grain next spring.

RAILWAY DOGS IN JANESVILLE

W. A. JOHNSON'S SPANIEL KNOWN TO MANY RAILROAD MEN.

SEVERAL LIVE AT THE DEPOTS

Operator Lyle's Pup "Schneider," Is the Interlocking Tower Mascot.

In almost every town of any size there are one or more "railway" dogs. Interesting stories are told of the intelligence of some of these animals, of dogs who have spent the greater part of their lives in the vicinity of the railroad depots, being able to tell the various trains that come into the stations each day and other tales that show the knowledge of some individuals of the canine tribe. Janesville is no exception to the rule, and has a number of dogs who have become associated with the different departments in the city and although it cannot be said that they have started the old railroaders by brave deeds such as stopping impending collisions, pulling sleeping drunks off the tracks, or other acts of humanity. This is doubtless only because they have not had an opportunity to show what they could do, and not because of any lack of wisdom on their part.

"Tinker"
One of the best known "fogs" in St. Paul railway circles, is Mr. Walter A. Johnson's spaniel, "Tinker" is one of the most faithful of animals and wherever Mr. Johnson is seen around the depot, the dog is not far away, and when the men want Mr. Johnson for anything and see the dog standing on the platform with that sturdy tail wagging for all it is worth they know the genial passenger agent is somewhere in the immediate vicinity. "Tinker" belongs strictly to the Janesville "four hundred" in dogdom, as he is a full blooded cocker spaniel.

"Ole"
Another "true blue" St. Paul dog is "Ole," a small but lively member of the express company's force at the depot. "Ole" is an Italian pug and is owned by Expressman J. Peterson. This dog spends most of the time at the depot although he does not often stray far from his master. He delights to jump upon the express trunk and express packages, superintending the hauling of the packages. Ole has a long tail for a dog of his size, and it is a question which does the wagging, the tail or the "Schneider."

"Schneider"
"Schneider" must be owned jointly by the St. Paul, the North-Western and the Interurban road for he spends his entire time at the Rock Island interlocking tower in Spring Brook. He is only a young one but is a precocious pup and has a likely future before him, so the boys at the tower say. "It's hard to tell just what kind of a dog he is," said Mr. Phillips, the night operator, yesterday, "but he is the popular dog in the neighborhood anyway." Schneider divides his attention between A. V. Lyle, who is at the tower during the days, and the night operator. Those who are impartial say that he likes Mr. Lyle the best. There is no denying that he is a smart animal for whenever Mr. Jacobs, the operator at the depot, gets on the line Schneider howls.

Roundhouse Dog
There are few engineers and firemen that come through Janesville who do not know the coach dog at the North-Western roundhouse, the property of Frank Sullivan who is a clerk at the roundhouse. This dog has his peculiarities, too, for he allows few to handle, or even pet him beside his owner. He is an old number at the roundhouse.

A MINISTER'S OPINION.
The Rev. S. P. Tanny pastor of the Sumnerfield Methodist church of Milwaukee, in discussing the secular press before a ministerial association, recently said:

"Thomas Carlyle used to say, 'If I want to reach thousands with a thought, I turn to the heart of a preacher.' There is a more direct and a quicker way to reach the people than through the pulpit, and that is through the medium of the daily press. The most powerful pastor in the United States speaks one day each week to about 7,000 or 8,000 people. But some of our editors speak to over 1,000,000 of our people seven days of each week. About 10,000,000 daily papers are sold each day, besides millions of weekly and monthly journals. The fact is, while the average daily paper has but little literary merit, it is the greatest of modern universities."

"It marches at the head of public opinion. It is daily introducing us to our fellowmen the world over. This morning before breakfast it told us what happened in London, Paris, Berlin, China and Japan only a few hours before. Its news columns are the cords that bind the world together, the touch of life that makes the whole world kin. It is easy to say that the press controls public sentiment; it is true. But it is more true to say that public sentiment controls the press. The object of the press is to please the largest number of people. Most of our newspaper men are cultured gentlemen, many of them Christian men, who are the natural friends of the public morals, ready to co-operate with the church in creating a sentiment in favor of clean journalism. The influence of the press is generally good, and its motives higher than the average reader."

"Our great dailies stand for law and order. I do not know of a single great daily in this country which has had a good word to say about the present fanatical lynching atmosphere which is sweeping over the country."

"It is a striking fact that most of the dailies are more uncompromising in their orthodoxy than the religious press itself. If this is true it is because the shrewd, practical, far-seeing business man can more quickly see the disastrous effects of loose ideas than the preacher who is perhaps, loaded down and confused by his half-digested theological opinions which may be harmless to him, but quite destructive to others."

The Reverend gentleman is right in his conclusions when he says that the people make the press. A daily paper of any prominence, wherever published, is an index of its constituency.

While it is possible in a few of the larger cities for a yellow journal to prosper, this class of papers are the rare exception and not the rule. This means that the yellow constituency is largely in the minority, and it speaks well for the morality of the nation.

The average newspaper men of the country, like the average business men, believe in morality, and practice it. They come in contact with life in all of its complex phases and in dealing with crime or with churches they are not influenced by sentiment. Their mission, from a news standpoint is to gather and record all the news free from bias as comment so far as personal opinion is concerned.

When a murder is committed a detailed account is demanded, and when a minister goes wrong, the same demand is recognized.

If a community calls for sensation and glaring head lines the paper is not slow to respond. It attempts to reflect, rather than to mould public sentiment, in this regard.

Editorial writers may or may not be men of good moral character. They may or may not be men whose lives are controlled by Christian principles, but, to the credit of the nation be it said, they are bound as a class to stand for morality. The secular journal that fails to respect this demand soon discovers to its cost that it has made a fatal error. The press and the people go hand in hand.

FAIR PLAY.

The people of Wisconsin believe in fair play, and it is safe to assume that when Senator Whitehead speaks in Beloit, in answer to the governor's charges against himself and his colleagues that he will be given a respectful hearing.

The title, "Governor," carries with it a good deal of weight, and usually commands a liberal degree of honor. While the office fails to add anything to the stature of manhood it does contribute to prominence, and furnishes men of limited capacity an opportunity to exploit all sorts of impractical theories.

The office in Wisconsin is being prostituted by the present incumbent, who seeks not only the advancement of himself and his pet measures, but who also attempts to gratify personal spite by maligning the character and reputation of men who refuse to bow to his dictation.

The spectacle presented at Beloit, on Labor day was humiliating, and the sober second thought of the people who witnessed it, is not in accord with the enthusiasm that the speaker inspired.

Senator Whitehead is a Rock county man. He enjoys the confidence of a constituency that has twice elected him to serve their interests in the state senate. His record is clean, and the people he represents give him credit not only for honesty but for good judgment on all questions that are vital to their interests.

The Senator was present and listened to the tirade of misrepresentation and abuse heaped upon himself and his colleagues. He realized that it was more than a personal insult, for it included all men who were in accord with him. This means a large percentage of the voting population of the county as well as every conservative citizen in the state.

Senator Whitehead has engaged the Beloit Opera House, and next Wednesday night will reply to the governor's charges. He may be assured of a good audience. Not only will his friends be present but men who are under the hypnotic spell of the governor, believe in fair play, and they will also accord him a respectful hearing.

It is time that some one picked up the gauntlet and accepted the challenge so defiantly and repeatedly offered. The Senator is equal to the occasion and will do the subject justice.

A SENSIBLE MOVE.

Chicago has at last come to her senses, so far as the school question is concerned, by placing in the hands of Supt. Cooley the authority that belongs to him.

For the first time in many years the selection of teachers is delegated to the superintendent. Ward influences are barred, and there is no appeal from Mr. Cooley's decisions. This is a move in the right direction, and it should be followed by every city in the land. The superintendent is held responsible for the scholars, and then handicapped by having forced upon him a lot of material that is absolutely worthless in the school room.

The average superintendent, like the average post master, is destitute of authority and the schools and general public suffer as the result. In the case of the postmaster the people attempt to be satisfied on the ground that civil service was a much needed reform, but the school question is different.

Where the superintendent is ignored and teachers employed simply because of some pull, political or otherwise, the children are the real sufferers. This is an injustice that time does not remedy, and the child deprived of the best instruction suffers a loss that is irreparable.

Chicago has 6,000 teachers. Mr. Cooley will have his hands full in selecting the right material for every department.

Father Ward of Beloit, one of the best known Catholic priests in the state, has notified his parishioners that the oath of allegiance required by organized labor, bars them from absolution. This practically means that they can take their choice between the church and organization.

The president made a similar ruling in the case of government employees. The oath needs modifying in several particulars, and will doubtless receive early attention.

Chicago is likely to be short on candy, as a general lockout has been ordered in anticipation of a strike. Candy can hardly be classed as a necessity, and about the only people who will suffer are the employees. Chicago people discovered that they could dispense with laundries last spring, and they will have less trouble with sweetmeats.

If any other nation than Turkey had killed 30,000 inhabitants because they wanted have some freedom there would have been a hue and cry that would have reached from pole to pole and war ships and soldiers would have been hurried from all parts of the globe. But then Turkey is Turkey.

It does not take much to stir up a rebellion in the east. Just a few fanatics and a little supply of powder with a gun or two make a noise and there is plenty of 4th of July to please the most fanciful.

Many of the farmers throughout the country are taking Horace Greeley's advice "Go West Young Man, Go West" only they are changing it slightly, "Go Northwest," and are crossing the border line into Canada.

Some day the republican elephant will bolt on its present leaders and poor Bob and Miller and Houser and Overbeck and the rest of the crew will be sorry they took Bryan aboard.

It does not take much for some men to be happy. Just give them a chance to abuse mankind in general and extol their own virtues and they are in the seventh heaven of delight.

Stephenson does not belong to Stalwart or Half Breeds. He is a Republican and well worthy of the support of every true member of the G. O. P.

West Point cadets can now smoke pipes if they want during certain hours of the day. This was done to do away with the sneaking habit of smoking cigarettes in quarters.

South America has stepped off the war stage for the present and now here comes Turkey to take its share of attention.

Next week this time the summer vacation will be only a dream of the past and the work for the winter will have begun in earnest.

Brother Wilder is taking good care these days to let the public know just where he stands on the political questions.

Chicago has a circus and a candy strike and school beginning all in one week.

STRANGE STORY FROM NEW YORK

FORMER JANESVILLE WOMAN HAS HER HUSBAND ARRESTED.

HUSBAND TELLS HIS STORY

He Claims That His Son Has Succeeded in Winning His Step-mother's Love.

The morning papers this morning contained a dispatch from New York to the effect that Mrs. Louis J. Percival, a former Janesville lady, had had her husband arrested for beating her and that on the witness stand he testified that his 20 year old son stood better in his wife's graces than he did. The story was a sensational one according to the reports sent out from New York. Mrs. Percival will be remembered here as Mrs. Lillian Woodruff. Before her marriage to Mr. Woodruff she was Miss Lillian Sutherland, daughter of James Sutherland of this city. The following is the newspaper account of the trouble.

Blames Son
Louis J. Percival, once vice consul of the United States at Venezuela, was arraigned in the Gates Avenue police court, Brooklyn, today, on the charge of attacking his wife. In his own defense he made the amazing declaration that his grown son by a former wife had supplanted him in the affection of the second Mrs. Percival.

The latter is about 40 years old and had been divorced from Geo. Woodruff of Janesville Wis., when she married the ex-United States diplomat two years ago. They had become acquainted through a matrimonial agency. Both have children by former marriages.

It was only a few weeks ago, according to his story, that Mr. Percival learned that his son Frederick who is 20 years of age, had been unseemly attentive to his step-mother. Two weeks ago Percival and his wife had a violent quarrel, which culminated, it is alleged, in the blows which dragged Mr. Percival to court.

Wife's Story.
Mrs. Percival in court told how she had nursed her stepson through an illness. She added that the boy had gallantly defended her from the attacks of his father. Percival, in his own defense, did not disguise his jealousy of his son. He described how the son treated the step-mother to ice cream and how they read books together in the kitchen. He went on to say that the matrimonial venture was a terrible venture and a most unhappy one.

Story Denied.
The son was then called as a witness and positively denied that he was enamored of his step-mother. He added that he was in love with his 18-year-old daughter. Magistrate Furlong held Percival in $500 bail for trial at special sessions. After the case was disposed of Percival declared that he had no bondsmen, and his wife, who seemed to take pity on him, set out to obtain bail. She was successful and the man was released.

100 PAILS OF STORE JELLY

Arrived at the Northwestern Freight House This Morning—Sad Comment on Janesville Taste.

A consignment of 100 pails of imitation fruit jelly arrived at the Northwestern depot this morning. The pails contained fifteen pounds each of all sorts of flavors. The huge pyramid even to the casual observer, was a sad commentary on the taste of Janesville people. That even in the midst of a fertile, fruit-growing country the people should exhibit such a voracious hunger for "store made" jelly—or rather gelatin—was food, even for the philosopher.

An inquiry at several of the grocery stores, however, did not substantiate the conclusions that one would naturally draw at first blush, as they attributed the demand to the bakers and said that very little, if any of the Chicago stuff was sold for private consumption.

Ward-Gallaher
Miss Maud C. Ward and A. H. Gallaher were united in marriage last evening in Milwaukee at the Kingsley Methodist church by the Rev. Cox, the pastor of the church. Miss Ward lived in Janesville for many years and is the daughter of the late D. C. Ward. The ceremony was attended by about four hundred friends of the bridal couple. After the church service there was a reception at the home of the bride's mother, 700 Thirtieth street. Mr. and Mrs. Gallaher will spend their honeymoon on Lake Michigan and will make their home in Milwaukee on their return. Mr. Gallaher is secretary of the Hammond Publishing company.

The fact should be born in mind that W. F. Hayes will be at his office with F. C. Cook & Co., tomorrow. Those who need glasses or those who require a change in glasses should visit him. His years of experience make him competent to fit correctly the most stubborn case of refractive trouble. Call on him Saturday.

Tomorrow is market day for your Sunday dinner at Lowell's. See opposite page and then talk to Lowell.

REPORTORIAL GLEANINGS
Janesville Veteran Treasurer: J. H. Lee, an honored member of the Thirty-fifth Wisconsin Volunteer regiment, was elected treasurer at the sixth reunion held in Milwaukee this week. The veterans held their meetings at the A. B. Wolcott post hall in the Cream City. They visited and inspected the soldiers' home, and the gathering closed Wednesday evening with a campfire and banquet at the post headquarters.

Ben Hurs Guess Pictures: Members of the Tribe of Ben Hurs held a pleasant meeting and social at the East Side Old Fellows hall last evening. The earlier part of the evening was taken up with the regular session of the lodge, as this was the first meeting of the winter series. A banquet followed the meeting after which a guessing contest with old photographs of the members took place. The gathering was a most successful one.

Family Reunion: Mrs. Black and Mrs. Richardson of Iowa, Mrs. Plagler of Eau Claire, and Miss Paul of St. Louis have been the guests of their sisters, Mrs. G. A. Cross and Mrs. Eliza Hodge, at the Cross residence, 105 South Main street. The Paul family of ten children originally lived on a farm near Milton Junction. One brother still resides on the old homestead.

Trinity Church Members: You are cordially invited to an informal social to be given in the Guild hall on Monday evening, Sept. 14th, at 8 o'clock.

A Correction: The case brought in municipal court for abusive language was instituted by Mrs. Johanna Cammerer and not by Catherine Egan, as was inadvertently stated in Wednesday's issue.

Teachers' Meeting: All teachers will meet at the High school tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

TEMPERATURE OF LAKE GENEVA

FATHER OF THE DROWNED GIRL SEARCHES THE LAKE.

BOTTOM WATER IS FRIGID

Search for the Bodies of Miss Brown and Lawrence Doty Is Renewed.

Lake Geneva's temperature, at a low depth, was yesterday found to be colder than the temperature recorded in a refrigerator. This was one of the results of the series of careful systematic experiments carried on by Mr. Tracy Brown, father of Miss Jessie Brown who was drowned in the treacherous waters of the lake over two months ago, accompanied by Mr. Doty, brother of Lawrence Doty who lost his life at the same time.

Made Soundings
Edward and Earle Brown accompanied the searchers and helped in the work. The men went out early in the morning in two boats with complete apparatus for sounding, taking temperatures, and instruments for determining the nature of the lake bottom. They were on the lake until late in the afternoon, when a wind arose which rendered further investigation impracticable. Tests were begun off Collo's Point. The experiments were made to find out as much as possible concerning the nature of the lake bottom, the depths and temperature of the water near the bottom.

Very Deep
The first sounding was made about 300 feet from the shore in 75 feet of water. At this point the temperature near or at the bottom was found to be 52 degrees. The second sounding was taken in 90 feet of water and the instrument showed 50 degrees. The third sounding was in 115 feet of water and the result was 48 degrees. The fourth time a record was made the depth measured 120 feet and the temperature was slightly less than 47 degrees. In the same vicinity, between two and three thousand feet from the shore, the lowest depth found was between 130 and 140 feet and here the water was 47 degrees which was the lowest temperature recorded. Near the surface, the highest temperature shown by the instrument was 66 degrees.

Many Soundings
Soundings were made by both parties in different parts of the lake, but mostly in the vicinity of Collo's Point and south of Williams Bay, which so far as is known is about where the couple are supposed to have lost their lives. The bottom of the lake appears to be nearly entirely covered with a "silt" like formation, a bluish deposit something like soft clay, being of a sticky formation underneath, but fine and soft in the top layers. This dust-like substance would be called "water dust" by marine men. In places it seemed to be mixed with quicksand, as the weight on the sounding line in places sank two feet into the mud. The contour of the lake appeared to vary greatly in different parts of the lake. A ridge is plainly noticeable extending from off Collo's Point to the southeast. The depth to the north of this point is considerable deeper.

Psoriasis

Thousands of people afflicted with this hideously disfiguring disease are daily suffering the most excruciating mental anguish, believing they are doomed to carry its awful scaling blotches until death relieves them. The medical profession, and the greatest skin specialists of the world have always considered the disease as absolutely incurable.

Now positively cured by that wonderful medicament known as

The D.D.D. Remedy

MR. W. B. JENNISON, of the National Express Co., Chicago, Ill., suffered the horrible and agonizing tortures of this disease for more than twenty years. The best skin specialists of Chicago, New York and Philadelphia pronounced his case as incurable. The terrible blotches of this disease had covered his face, head, hands and entire body. His appearance was so repulsive that he had not been able to attend any social or public gathering for years. Mr. David Robinson, head clerk of the People's Drug Store, in Chicago, who had cured himself of a bad case of Psoriasis of ten years standing, with the D. D. D. Remedy, prevailed upon him to try this preparation. Mr. Jennison, speaking of his treatment with this marvelous medicine says:—"I commenced the use of the D. D. D. Remedy, and during the first two months I saw little, if any improvement, but was persuaded by Mr. Robinson to continue its use. I persevered in using the remedy, and I now devoutly thank God that I did. For the first time in twenty years I am free from the awful, scaling blotches of this terrible disease. Once more I am free from the bondage of these tortures of hell, and can again make a presentable appearance before my fellow men. I earnestly beg every sufferer from a disease of the skin to immediately begin treatment with the D. D. D. Remedy. Use it—persevere with it—stick to it—and you will find that it will cure you. Specialists said I had the worst case ever recorded. I know that what cured me will cure anyone."

We unhesitatingly give this remedy our highest endorsement. The marvelous and effective work; the wonderful cures it is making in this community are simply astonishing.

INDIANA BANKERS HEAR BEVERIDGE

REPEAL FOR OBSOLETE LAWS

Says Moderate Action Will Relieve the Money Stringency, but That Congress Must Deal With the Matter in a Conservative Manner.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 11.—Senator Beveridge, direct from a visit to Oyster Bay, was the principal speaker at the seventh annual convention of Indiana bankers here. His address, relating to the probable action at the coming session of congress, is given in great weight.

"Financial legislation must not be radical," said Senator Beveridge in his address, which in part was as follows:

"The coming session of congress will not enact any radical or sweeping financial legislation. Except in great emergencies, moderation is the word in all financial legislation. The stability of financial legislation, even though imperfect, is more desirable than sudden and comprehensive changes are toward greater perfection.

Money Stringency.
"Some moderate financial legislation which will relieve the periodically recurring money stringency in the money center is probably desired, and may be enacted. But such legislation, if enacted, will be simple in its nature and will not disturb or alarm the business interests of the country.

"We know that the maintenance of credit is the only great financial question, and always must be. And credit is only another name for confidence. Confidence is preserved by reasonably permanent adjustment of business to any given lines of financial and commercial policy more than by all other things put together.

Gradual Changes.
"I do not mean that there should not be gradual changes in all of our laws as these laws here and there become out of date. But I do mean that it is better for business to steadily adhere to some settled line of policy than to suddenly and radically change it. Our whole financial and industrial legislation should be steady and not spasmodic.

"There should be mutual consideration, each section taking care of the financial necessities of its own people as long as it has the money to do so, and relieving the necessities of another section only whenever they are not able to take care of themselves. There never was a period when the tide of prosperity has risen so high as now; and its highest point is not yet reached.

Prosperity Must Be Guarded.
"But upon the shoulders of the bankers of the country more than upon any one set of business men depends the continuance of this fortunate condition. Crops are abundant, mines generously yielding, transportation facilities increasing, the volume of actual money swelling—in short, all the theoretical elements of prosperity are here and are waxing.

"If the bankers begin to exercise cowardice instead of prudence; if without any reason except timidity they begin to contract their loans and reduce their credits, that confidence upon which all business rests and of which the bankers themselves are the beneficiaries will be impaired. But this will not occur. The bankers of the republic are too intelligent, too brave, too patriotic."

Explains Currency Bill.
Congressman Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey also spoke, explaining the provisions of his currency bill.

Before closing his address Mr. Fowler took to task President Flynn of the National Livestock bank of Chicago for utterances concerning the radical and conservative in financing. Mr. Flynn arose and said he did not care to make the matter, or his remarks, personal. He had a high esteem for Mr. Fowler, but not his bill; that what he said was a public necessity.

The following officers were chosen: President, W. Bonner, Greensburg; vice president, A. G. Lupton, Hartford City; vice presidents at large, W. F. Churchman, Indianapolis; Myron Campbell, South Bend; treasurer, W. C. Thomas, Logansport.

The Strangest Ever!

Is the clever and thrilling detective story, entitled

My Strangest Case

By GUY BOOTHBY.

This will certainly captivate
the youngest and the oldest reader.
Its opening chapter:

WILL APPEAR VERY SOON IN THIS PAPER.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, Sept. 11, 1863.—Dame Fashion now endorses the generally received opinion that for some things "there is nothing like leather." The Philadelphia Gazette says: "We yesterday were shown some ladies' bonnets made of leather. What is more, they are very pretty. In a week or so they will be in the market."

Headquarters Army of the Cumberland, Near Trenton, Ga., Sept. 8, 1863.—A dispatch just received from the front, conveys the intelligence that the enemy yesterday began the evacuation of Chattanooga, moving eastward all their stores and munitions. From the present meagre information, there is little if any doubt, that East Tennessee has been totally abandoned by the rebels.

Headquarters in the Field, Sept. 7.—To Major General Halleck: I have the honor to report that Fort Wagner and Battery Gregg are ours. Last night our sappers crowned the crest of the counter-scarp of Fort Wagner, on its sea front, masking all its guns, and order was issued to carry the place by assault at 9 o'clock this morning. The city and harbor of Charleston are now completely covered by our guns. Q. A.

Gilmore, Brigadier General Commanding.

Knoxville, Sept. 6 via Cumberland Gap, Sept. 10.—The great campaign of the war is over. We are in full possession of East Tennessee after a great bloodless victory. Our right wing is in easy reach of Rosecrans' left. The rebels regarded our expedition as only a raid until the last moment.

New York, Sept. 11.—The Times' dispatch says there is scarcely a doubt that Lee's army is being depleted to reinforce Beauregard and Bragg. Up to within a week there was no positive evidence that this was so, but it is now reduced to a certainty.

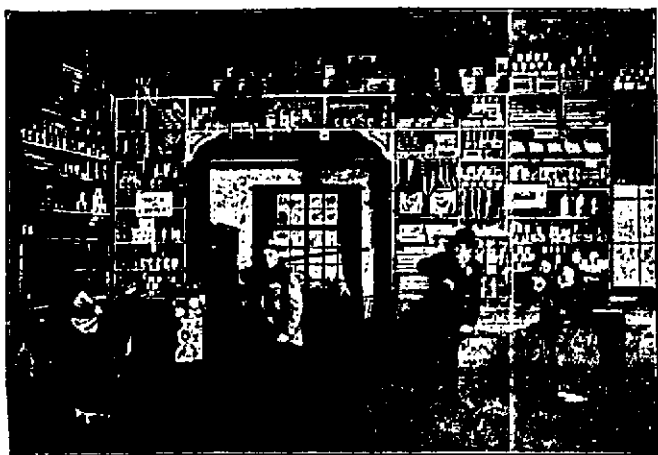

Washington, Sept. 10, Tribune's Special.—It is believed by military men whose means of information are of the best description, that Gen. Lee has, within the last few days, received heavy reinforcements, and that he meditates another aggressive campaign. The weakness shown by the rebel armies at other points is thought to strengthen the probability that the insurgents are gathering their forces for a desperate effort under their most trusted commanders.

Coming Attractions.

CALENDAR AT MYERS GRAND

Sept. 14—"Sky Farm."
Sept. 16—"At Cripple Creek."
Sept. 21—"Walker Whiteside in 'We Are King.'
Sept. 24—"Quincy Adams Sawyer."
Sept. 30—"The Irish Pawnbrokers."
Oct. 1, 2, 3—"Flora de Voss in Repertoire."

A play of any nature that can remain in Boston for almost four months, it will be generally acknowledged.

SCENE IN "SKY FARM"

ledge, possesses qualities of the most enduring sort. It must be able to attract and hold the interest of thousands of educated, critical people and to entertain them, not in any ordinary way, but really to treat them to a dramatic feast. This Joseph R. Grismer's big production of Edward E. Kilders' new rural drama, "Sky Farm," which is coming to the Myers theatre on the 14th instant, has certainly done, and the menu provides so satisfactory that people tried it again and again, and it is known that a great many in year. Another very entertaining and amusing incident in this scene is the attempt of the village postmistress to make love to one of the villagers who is really in love with her daughter. The only way he manages to escape her fascinations is by simulating a fit, that he does capably. The whole piece is bright from start to finish with an abundance of sunshine and love and very little of the clouds which are sometimes thought necessary to lower over a romance of this sort.

Mr. Thomas Meeley has returned home from Dakota where he spent a week calling on old friends. School commenced on Monday with Mrs. Sila Greene as teacher. Miss Minnie Edwards began teaching in the South district Tuesday.

A baby boy arrived at the home of

Not So Much in Evidence. We learn, not without emotion, that there is a marked decrease in the size of the Chicago girl's foot. Her shoe has shrunk from No. 5 to No. 4½. Let us hope the improvement will continue. We have had rather too much American girl lately.—London Judy.

Doesn't Inspire Confidence.

An Indiana man lost a pocketbook containing $5,000 and presented the sleeping car porter who found it and returned it a cigar. And now the porter is afraid to smoke the cigar. It may be "loaded."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Men as Men.

"All union men look alike to me, white, black, red or yellow," says President Mitchell. If organized labor can abolish race warfare it will give a good reason for its existence.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Adds to American Trade.

Last year 60,000,000 barrels of kerosene were produced in the United States, and it is reckoned that the proceeds from the sale of this and the various by-products from crude petroleum aggregated nearly $500,000,000.

An Excess of Nerve.

"I like to see a young man energetic and able to push himself," said the old banker sadly. But when he borrowed the money from me to buy an automobile in which to elope with my daughter, it was carrying things a little too far."

Should Secure American Seamen.

To improve shooting in the British navy, Gibson Bowles will suggest in the house that retention of commands shall depend on gunnery results.

Gold in Other Worlds.

An Australian scientist has analyzed a meteor which contained traces of gold, showing that that element is not monopolized by the earth.

Can't Get Loose.

"What prevents the ocean from overflowing the land?" asked the teacher. "It's tide," came a shrill voice from the tail of the class.

Near the Limit of Vulgarity.

Could vulgarity go much further than it did at a recent dinner at Asbury Park, where the menu was printed on the back of $20 gold certificates, each of the guests receiving one?

Growth of Experience.

At 21 he said: "He is my friend; what can I do for him?" At 40 he remarked: "He is my friend; what will he do for me?"—Ohio State Journal.

Doan's Ointment brings quick relief; Cures Eczema, Itching Piles and all Itchiness of the skin.

Mr. L. Lawrence of 408 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Co., says: "I tried about everything recommended for itching of the skin but found nothing to give me relief until I struck Doan's Ointment at the People's Drug Store. I had an affection of the skin. My face itched and annoyed me, and rubbing it only made it worse and made it sore. I could hardly stand slaving for the skin broke and bled. A few applications of Doan's Ointment removed the itching and healed up my face in a few days. I would not be without the remedy in my house and I certainly recommend it to others in need of such a preparation."
